

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

May 1, 2026

Please Welcome our new Priest-In-Charge The Rev. Brad Eubanks

Dear people of All Saints,

I am so incredibly excited to begin my ministry with you as your priest. My first Sunday with you will be April 26th, and I will be around the office beginning the first week of May.

I was first in your midst on November 9th as your supply priest, and each of the seven different Sundays I have celebrated with you thus far, you have welcomed me into your community with radical hospitality and love. It is this Christ-like welcome that sparked my emphatic yes when you asked me to consider becoming your priest-in-charge. Our parish has so much to be proud of, and our story isn't over yet!

A little bit more about me:

I was born in the Great State of Texas, where I grew up in the suburbs of Houston. From the age of two, I began to experience the love of Christian community at another All Saints, All Saints Episcopal Church in Stafford, Texas. It was here that I learned how much God loves you and me, and that we are so very precious in God's sight.

Before beginning seminary, I served as the Episcopal and Lutheran Campus Chaplain for Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff. In that role, I once (in)famously distributed over 20,000 stickers in a single year—a small but mighty effort to ensure that every person on campus knew they were wonderfully loved by God. Before entering the campus ministry world, I was the children, youth, and family minister at a parish in suburban Austin.

I live in the Bronx with my beautiful wife, Rachel, and our two 16-year-old kittens, Lotus and Scarlet. I love long walks on the beach (in temperatures above 78 degrees), connecting the sacred to the ordinary, liberation-based theologies, and tearing tyrants from their thrones. I am most in my element when I am on my seventh cup of tea for the day, sitting on a couch with my fellow siblings in Christ (that's you!), scheming about how we can best show the love that Jesus has for us out into the world. Y'all, I cannot wait for us to begin our journey together!

PS: Some of you have inquired what I enjoy being called. While I first and foremost invite you to call me whatever feels most comfortable for you, my preference is simply Brad. I come from a very informal upbringing, and fancy titles sometimes make me a bit itchy!
